

Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice explains how we – The Margate Caves Community Education Trust (TMCCET) – use any personal information you give us and that we collect about you when you use our services and website.

For the purposes of the Data Protection Act, the Data Controller is the Chair of Trustees of TMCCET.

What personal information do we collect about you?

We collect personal information about you, such as your name and address and the details we require for payment, when you register with us, purchase tickets or place an order for products or services. We also collect information when you voluntarily complete customer surveys, provide feedback and participate in competitions. Website usage information is collected using cookies.

How will we use the information about you?

We collect information about you to process any orders, manage any accounts and, if you agree by giving us your consent, to contact you with updates about our latest news, events and offers which we think may be of interest to you.

If you have signed up to hear more from us, we may also use your information to improve the relevancy of our marketing communications. We will never sell your information or share it with third parties for their marketing purposes.

How will we protect your data?

We follow appropriate security procedures in the storage and disclosure of personal data so as to guard against loss, damage and unauthorised access by third parties and have robust technological solutions to ensure your personal data is protected from unauthorised access. We also require those external parties to whom we transfer personal data to comply with the same.

Newsletter

We like sending you information about our latest news, offers and events via our email newsletter, but we will only ever do this with your consent.

If you have signed up to our newsletter you can opt out at any time by clicking the 'Unsubscribe' link at the bottom of any newsletter. You can also ask to be deleted from our list at any time by contacting info@margatecaves.co.uk.

We use Hubspot to send our email newsletter and Hubspot securely stores your personal data on our behalf. The entire Hubspot application is encrypted to secure your personal data.

Access to your information and its accuracy

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you. We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date so you may ask us to correct or remove information you think is inaccurate or unnecessary. You also have the right to request that your data is deleted. If you would like a copy of your personal information, please email or write to us at the following address:

Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to monitor how people use our websites and aggregate general statistics about customers, traffic patterns and related site information. It is always collected and analysed in an anonymous form.

Online donations

We have enabled online donations to be made to TMCCET through Paypal.

Booking event tickets online

Our event ticketing is generally through Eventbrite or other third party ticketing systems. The booking system collects personal information on behalf of the Caves and enables us to process your transaction. We only use personal data where it is necessary to fulfil your order, communicate key information, products and services related to your ticket or visit and deliver customer support services. We will not disclose personal data to other parties.

We will keep your personal information regarding such transactions as ticket purchases for a maximum of three years to enable follow up if required.

If you make a booking and have opted into our email newsletter we may also use your information to improve the relevancy of our marketing communications.

Using our online shop

We only collect information about you in order to process any transactions and manage any accounts. We only use personal data where it is necessary to fulfil your order, communicate key information, products and services related to your transaction and deliver customer support services. We use encryption to secure your personal data.

If you agree by giving us your consent, we may contact you with updates about our latest news and offers which we think may be of interest to you. We may also use your information to improve the relevancy of our marketing communications. For more information see the Newsletter section above.

Membership

TMC CET will use your personal details to administer your Membership in accordance with the current Data Protection Act, General Data Protection Regulation, and as otherwise permitted or required by law. We will send Membership material by email, such as e-newsletters, invitations to events, surveys and conservation appeals if you have given your consent.

We will never pass on your personal details to other organisations. Your personal details are stored in the TMC CET database for the duration of your Membership and for 24 months after your Membership expires; after that we will dispose of your details securely.
